

The Holly Wood Tuesday Morning Show – A free community service
Tuesday 11:00 am to 12:00 noon
Perth Town Hall (Cnr Barrack & Hay Streets)
For enquiries please phone 9461 3145
Coordinator – Bernard Carney

August 2019

6th August 2019 - Compere: Bernard Carney

Peter Williams has a smorgasboard of music to offer us with some nifty guitar playing from Swing, Jazz, Country and Western Ballads to sing-a-longs and a great touch of comedy.

13th August 2019 - Compere: Bernard Carney

Jennifer Merrigan from 'Have a Go News' will update you on the news, events and competitions in this month's issue.

Carol Metcalf and Leslie Thomas After many years performing with the Tivoli Theatre, Carol Metcalf has stuck to her motto "You're never too old to give dance a go". Carol was a finalist in the 2019 Follow Your Dreams National Masters Tap Dancing competition held in Melbourne this year, and is here to dance up a few of her routines. She is accompanied by entertainer Leslie Thomas, pianist and singer extraordinaire.

20th August 2019 - Compere: Bernard Carney

Perfect Storm Wayne and John are a fun vocal and guitar duo who will entertain you with your favourite songs from the 50's onwards.

27th August 2019 - Compere: Bernard Carney

August was National Family History month. Mike Murray is director of Time Trackers, an organisation which helps people grow their family tree. Mike is also heavily involved in the WA Genealogy Society and will talk about some of the events this month and in particular some of the interesting issues that DNA testing is presenting.

Eddie Storm (OAM) A lifetime of entertaining the community shines through when Eddie Storm (OAM), one of our favourite entertainers, returns with his wonderful variety show and effortless vocal style, paying tribute to the great entertainers from the past, with one or two yarns thrown in for good measure.